

Venture into Pembrokeshire...

Full Day Tour

VIP WALES

Depart Fishguard & Goodwick Harbour
Arrive Pentre Ifan

One of Wales' most visited megalithic cromlechs, dating back some six thousand years. This fine burial chamber has an impressive 20 ton capstone, makes you wonder how this blue dolerite ever came to rest here!

Depart Pentre Ifan
Arrive The Parish of Nevern

Highlights will include 'The Bleeding Yew' whos' seeping sap is blood red. The Celtic Cross dates from the early 11th Century and is one of only 3 of its kind found in Pembrokeshire.

The St. Brynach Church dates from the 12th or 13th century and inside the church you can view the most amazing example Ogham writing.

Depart The Parish of Nevern
Arrive Castell Henllys Tour

Castell Henllys is the only Iron Age Village in Britain reconstructed on the exact site where our Celtic ancestors lived 2,500 years ago. Here you can walk in the footsteps of the Demetae tribe.

Depart Castell Henllys
Arrive Cat Rock Café

Time to stop for lunch and taste some delicious local produce, whilst enjoying the dramatic views over Newport Bay.

(Lunch is not included in the price of the tour- £10 per person.)

Depart Cat Rock Café
Arrive Ceibwr

Ceibwr Bay is in the Pembrokeshire Coast National Park and is owned by the National Trust. The landscape is a significant bird habitat and its natural environment and geological features attract visitors all year round. Grey Atlantic seals are often spotted in the water- make sure you take a camera!

Depart Ceibwr
Arrive Bluestone Brewery

Enjoy a tour and tasting at the local Bluestone Brewery. It's a family run business situated in the foothills of the Preseli Hills. They produce hand crafted real ales, using local water filtered down through the Bluestone Hills to produce a range of flavoursome Rock Solid Ales.

Depart Bluestone Brewery
Arrive St. Davids Cathedral

Set on a spectacular Pembrokeshire peninsula St Davids Cathedral has been a site of pilgrimage and worship for more than 800 years. Today this splendid building erected to the glory of God remains a vibrant, living church offering a place of peace for prayer and devotion.

Depart St. Davids
Arrive Pointz Castle Ice Cream

We will visit the dairy farm in Solva where you can see the cows, who enjoy the most spectacular views from the fields. It is here the milk is taken directly to the on-site parlour and turned into the most delicious, creamy ice cream. There are flavours galore to experience. (An ice cream is included in your tour.)

Depart Pointz Castle Ice Cream
Arrive Strumble Head Lighthouse

We end the tour with a scenic drive to Strumble Lighthouse, perched on a tiny island just off the coast and reached by a small suspension bridge. The Lighthouse was built by Trinity House in 1908, marking the dangerous stretch of coast for vessels between Ireland and Wales.
