

Venture into Pembrokeshire... Half Day Tour

Depart Fishguard Harbour
Arrive Pentre Ifan

One of Wales' most visited megalithic cromlechs, dating back some six thousand years. This fine burial chamber has an impressive 20 ton capstone, makes you wonder how this blue dolerite ever came to rest here!

Depart Pentre Ifan
Arrive The Parish of Nevern

Highlights will include 'The Bleeding Yew' whos' seeping sap is blood red. The Celtic Cross dates from the early 11th Century and is one of only 3 of its kind found in Pembrokeshire. The St. Brynach Church dates from the 12th or 13th century and inside the church you can view the most amazing example Ogham writing.

Depart The Parish of Nevern
Arrive Castell Henllys Tour

Castell Henllys is the only Iron Age Village in Britain reconstructed on the exact site where our Celtic ancestors lived 2,500 years ago. Here you can walk in the footsteps of the Demetae tribe.

Depart Castell Henllys
Arrive Bluestone Brewery

Enjoy a tasting at the local Bluestone Brewery. It's a family run business situated in the foothills of the Preseli Hills. They produce hand crafted real ales, using local water filtered down through the Bluestone Hills to produce a range of flavorsome Rock Solid Ales.

Depart Bluestone Brewery
End of Tour - Return to Goodwick Harbour

We end the tour with a scenic drive up and over Dinas Mountain to see views of Newport Bay and Fishguard Harbor in the distance. Guests have the option to finish the tour in Fishguard Square, to view the Last Invasion Tapestry and explore the town. Free shuttles back to the harbor are available if required.
